

Best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year from smOdyssey!!

Yes, the newsletter is coming to you later this month. That's because for 2019 we have moved our monthly board meetings to the fourth Monday of the month. But speaking of newsletters, we understand that a lot of our members aren't receiving theirs. We are trying to figure out the problem, but to do that we need to find out who is receiving them and who isn't. So, if you've received this email, please reply and let us know (unless you did that for us last month – thank you).

We have a couple of fabulous programs coming up for you this winter. For February, what better way to delight your Valentine than with your SINGLE TAIL TALENT?? We are planning a single tail class with the suave and skilled Robert9119. And in March, we will be offering a CPR certification class taught by the one and only Jay Wiseman. Improve your DM skills by getting certified in CPR. Oh, yeah, I suppose you can use those skills elsewhere as well. This class will be offered on Saturday, March 30th in the Campbell/San Jose area. Details for both coming soon - stay tuned on Fetlife.

We are still on the lookout for cool classes to present. If you have a skill you'd like to share or teach, let us know! If you've been to a class that you loved, let us know! If there is a class you'd like to take or a skill you'd like to learn, let us know! Contact us at education@smodyssey.com.

We are also in need of some assistance in our marketing and education functions. This work entails mostly computer work that you can do from your home or wherever you spend your spare time. It can fit into your schedule whenever you have time. Start off the year by doing good and helping your kink community and friends. If you have some time you can spare, contact us at secretary@smodyssey.com. You will gain the love and devotion of the smOdyssey board. Homemade cookies may be negotiated. 😊
